Bad Complexions Peeled Off at Home

The girl with the poor complexion complains "I have to touch up my cheeks, I am sallow and a sight, and only my make-up saves me." Now, as a matter of fact, more women spoil their good looks than improve them with cosmetics. The practice certainly is unnecessary, now that the virtues of ordinary carbolized wax are a beautiful have been discovered. It causes the faded or discolored skin to take on its natural, almost imperceptible, particles, so gently, gradually, as to cause no inconvenience at all. In this way the old complexion is actually removed—like all the fine lines, freckles, pimples, blemishes, blotches and other surface defects. A new complexion appears—a clear, smooth, youthful, healthy, rosy skin such as is seen in the faces of young girls. Mercolized wax is to be had at any drug store in convenient size packages, in applied the cold cream.—Advertisement.

SEES HOPE ONLY IN NEW PART

Col. Roosevelt Declares Old Political Parties Are Wholly "Fossilized."

Columbus, O., Sept. 29.—The Old political parties, meaning the Democrats and Republicans, are "fossilized," declared Col. Roosevelt, who addressed an audience in Memorial hall here Monday night. The traffician and the "fossilized" platform as the only way to save reform. The old parties, he said, cannot and will not deal with new ideas in any way. They know that if they get the wind of the new ideas, the old parties will be blown away. The new ideas, he said, are the only ones that will save the country. The old parties are wholly "fossilized."

Opposes State Ownership

The former senator, who is opposed to state ownership in most instances because of the superior efficiency of private enterprise, conducted a surprise lecture Monday night in the hall, water and light, he said, fall naturally within the province of the state, but in general, he said, the state should not be used to regulate business. He said that he was a strong supporter of private enterprise.

Democracy Resolves Hampered

In speaking for an untrammeled tariff commission, the speaker asserted that the Democratic party is hampered in the same manner that the Aldrich-Vreeland adjustment was by the party of protection and that the Democrats must think nationally and act nationally. He pointed to the plan of the tariff on the free list as an example of scientific legislation, and declared that the Democrats in general are not to be blamed for the tariff.

Says Nobody Promises Enough

Under the present system a few men get the most, he said. Under the Democratic scheme nobody promises enough, he asserted. He remarked in repeated promises to provide a practical primary, and characterized the platform as an outrage. He said that the Democratic party is hampered in the same manner that the Aldrich-Vreeland adjustment was by the party of protection and that the Democrats must think nationally and act nationally.

The Daily Noveltie PAPA'S CONSENT

She certainly did love him; although she was quite fickle; she curious about it was. My, my! 'Twas but a nickle!

In a soft but clinging Camembert gown of Mexican lavender, Phryne Kelly never looked lovelier. Elmhurst Swiggins had been sighing all evening as he gazed at her in the dim light of the parlor.

"Miss Kelly," he said at length, hesitatingly, "Miss Kelly, do you think it would be possible for me to see your father for a moment or two?"

A glow filled the beautiful girl as she read the feverish light that filled his eyes. "Certainly, Mr. Swiggins," she replied sedately, and left the room in a dignified manner, but Swiggins could hear her running through the hall. Presently Mr. Kelly came in, and after a short conversation with the young man, patted him on the shoulder and again quitted the room, calling his daughter back as he did so.

"It's getting late, Miss Kelly; I must go," said Swiggins. There was a smile of triumph on his face. "Shall I find you at home on Wednesday night?" She smiled a shy acquiescence, and, after seeing him to the door, rushed back to her father.

"Now, now," interrupted Mr. Kelly, "you must not ask questions—Mr. Swiggins wanted to see me on a matter which for the present must remain a secret."

"Please tell me, father," she begged. He begged so hard that at last he said: "Oh, well—if you must know, he wanted to borrow a nickle to get home with."

TWO FACTIONS CLAIM CHARTER

Central Labor Union Is Now Split in Two; Holds Two Meetings.

Twenty-Nine Delegates Present. "In answer to this call, 29 delegates representing 14 unions responded and proceeded to transact their business in the proper form. When this meeting was about to be called to order, it was discovered that the charter which had been hanging in another hall until the last meeting, had disappeared; and the suspended secretary-treasurer failed to appear to turn over his books to his successor.

"We are told that the expelled president, secretary-treasurer and two or three of their friends had the charter and books in a private residence and were calling that a meeting, but this was entirely hearsay, and none of us know anything about that.

ABANDON ARMY-NAVY GAME. WAR SECRETARY SUGGESTS. Washington, D. C., Sept. 23.—Because of the failure of West Point and Annapolis to agree on cities for the army and navy football game, secretary Garrison today recommended to the West Point authorities that the game be abandoned permanently.

FIVE SHOTS ARE FIRED; BRACKENMAN IS ARRESTED. H. M. George, a railroad brakeman, was arrested by the police Monday night and docketed at the station on the charge of disorderly conduct. A shooting at 11th boulevard, in which five shots were said to have been fired at a soldier, is reported by the police to have caused the complaint.

BURNING SHED CALLS OUT TWO FIRE COMPANIES. A burning shed in the rear of Mrs. J. R. Lewis's house at 704 North Santa Fe street called out the Sunset and the Central departments. The damage was slight, as the fire was extinguished before the firemen arrived.
