PRESIDENT'S TRAIN SOUTH

Memphis is the First Resting Place of the Tour Through the Heart of Dixie.

VISION OF SOUTHLAND

Heartly Greetings Extended to the President and Party Along the Route That Passed Through Fields and Forests Loaded with Pastoral Freshness and Springtime Fragrance—Addresses Made.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Memphis, April 30.—The presidential train passed through the heart of Dixie today, and at 4:20 o'clock this afternoon reached Memphis, on the banks of the Mississippi.

This was the first resting place of the tour. After descending the mountains last night the train today skimmed along through northern Alabama and touched at Corinth, Miss., where General Grant visited Forrest in his campaign to cut the Confederacy in two. The fresh green southland, with its fruit in full blossom and its infinite variety of wild flowers in the fields and forest, was a great change from the backward spring which the party had left behind at Washington. The heat was rather oppressive, but the weather was not so warm as the president's welcome. The hearty greetings extended to the president along the route testified how completely he had captured the hearts of the people of Dixie. Confederate veterans at all the stopping places were among the president's most enthusiastic auditors, and that he was impressed with their remarks of love and esteem was evident from the brief speeches he made at Hartselle, Decatur, Tusculumbia and Corinth.

Cabinet Meeting on Wheels.

During the morning, at the regular hour for the cabinet to assemble, the president summoned his advisers into the observation car and there, behind closed doors, the first cabinet meeting on wheels was held. No important addresses had been received from Washington that required action, but the foreign dispatches in the papers were talked over and some of the details as yet undetermined were discussed.

At Memphis the party received a wonderfully impressive welcome. A delegation met the train at Corinth and escorted the presidential party to this city. A national salute of twenty-one guns signalled the approach to the city.

AN EXTENSIVE NIHILISTIC PLOT

Lokal Anzeiger Announces the Discovery of Another Band of Conspirators.

Berlin, April 30.—The Lokal Anzeiger prints a dispatch from Breslau, which says: "An extensive nihilistic plot has been discovered in Russian Poland. Six hundred arrests were made today, of which number two hundred were transported by special train to the Warsaw citadel. The towns of Sosnowice, Silece and Dombrowa have been occupied by two companies of Cossacks. Secret correspondence was discovered at Silece, by which the plot was revealed."

ACRIMONIOUS RECRIMINATION.

M. P.'s Stigmatize Fellow-Members as Ornamental Guinea Pigs.

London, April 30.—The discussion in the house of commons today, of a private member's resolution, proposing on the London and Northwestern railway, led to a great deal of acrimonious recrimination. John Burns, who with the opposition general opposed the measure, was called to order by the speaker for stigmatizing some of the members of the government as ornamental guinea pigs.

Mr. McKinley's Remarks.

President McKinley said, in part: "What a mighty, resistless power for good is a united nation of free men. It makes for peace and prestige, for progress and liberty. It conserves the rights of the people and strengthens the pillars of the government, and is a fulfillment of that more perfect union for which our revolutionary heroes strove and for which the constitution was made. No citizen of the republic relies more than I do at this happy hour, and none will do more within his sphere to continue and strengthen it."

The Daughters at West Point.

West Point, N. Y., April 30.—About 750 members of the Washington chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution of New York, held a military academy visit this afternoon. They lunched at the West Point hotel and during the afternoon viewed about the park through the distant buildings by courtesy of Superintendent Mills. At 6 o'clock the ladies witnessed inspection and review on the plains by the battalion of cadets.

Downes Escapes.

Birmingham, April 30.—The grand jury which reported today failed to find any indictment against Frank Downes, who was held on remand in the case of the explosion at the city with about 200 prominent business men of the city, set down to an elaborate dinner. At 1:30 in the morning the presidential train resumed its journey for New Orleans, which will be reached at 4:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

ROOSEVELT'S LECTURE

The Vice President's Talk Before the Harvard Students in Sanders' Theatre.

ADVICE TO THE YOUNG

Colonel Roosevelt Speaks of His Experiences as Governor of New York, and of the Application of His Methods to Young Men Entering Political Life—A Reception by President Eliot—National Questions.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Cambridge, Mass., April 30.—Vice-President Theodore Roosevelt delivered a lecture before the Harvard students in Sanders' theatre this afternoon, in the course of elementary government and law established by A. Lawrence Lowell. The vice president spoke principally of his experiences as governor of New York and of the application of his methods to young men entering political life.

Mr. Roosevelt said: "In dealing with our new duties we must approach them in the same spirit necessary for the solution of the problems that confront us at home—that is, in a spirit which shall combine business efficiency with the highest standard of fearlessness and integrity—practical common sense with resolute devotion to duty. Whether we are glad or sorry that this new work has been allotted to us is a matter of small moment compared to the purpose with which we approach it. The one is a matter of temperament; the other a matter of principle. Some among us feel that this generation should count itself thrice favored by Providence that it is given the chance to do a mighty task; that this nation should rejoice in a strong man, and that we should be glad to open to it the same opportunity for triumph-crowned effort which has been its glory in the past. Others of us approach our new duties in a more sober and practical spirit, neither for joy nor regret, but as tasks which hereafter come in the day's work and must be performed as such. Yet others regard greatly that the necessity ever arises, when we are called upon to do a task which has no more idea of shirking than that of shirking any other disagreeable and necessary duty. It does not matter much which one of these attitudes is ours, but it does matter that we should make serious purpose in our actions, and a serious appreciation alike of the importance and difficulty of the task and of the prime need of our doing it aright."

Our New Duties.

For good or for evil, we now find ourselves with new duties in the West Indies and near duties beyond the Pacific. We cannot escape the performance of these duties. All we can decide for ourselves is whether we shall do them well or ill. Moreover the duties which are now before us are not only of the highest importance, but are of the most far-reaching character. They are of the nature of the duties which we are bound to perform, by every tie of patriotism, by every consideration of that statesman's duty which looks to the future, to help in all measures which tend to uphold any part of the nation, and which tend to the good of the nation, and which tend to the good of the world. This completely pacifies the first department, northern Luzon, for many months the worst in Luzon."

"Colonel Cipriano Caliao and Gregorio Katibao, Malver best officers, surrendered to Colonel Jacob Kline at Lipa on April 28, with 23 officers, 103 men and 86 rifles."

Tinio is said here to have been, with Alejandro, one of the highest officers in the insurrectionary force. He was in command in northern Luzon during the famous chase after Commander Gilmore.

GARTRELLS CONFESS KILLING DONEGAN

The Mystery of the Murder of a Colorado Miner, Near Kansas City, Is Explained.

Kansas City, April 30.—Dr. J. L. Gartrell, seventy years old, today confessed to Chief of Police Hayes that he killed D. B. Donegan, a Colorado miner whose body was found yesterday in Mulberry creek, between Ameret and Nihart, Mo. The confession was in writing. W. P. Gartrell, the doctor's son, confessed to his knowledge of the crime and to having helped dispose of the body. The men were arrested last night, after Dr. Gartrell had demanded the proceeds from a sale of Donegan's team and wagon, which had been sold by a local dealer. The younger Gartrell was the first to confess. When shown his son's confession, Dr. Gartrell admitted having killed Donegan with an axe.

Donegan left Colorado for Kansas City, March 15, and was driving overland to Oklahoma when he met the Gartrells. The case has attracted much attention owing to its similarity with the disappearance of Gilbert Gates, many years ago, and the recent trial and acquittal of the octogenarian, Alexander Jester, who was charged with killing Gates. Dr. Gartrell fought an inmate of the Confederate Soldiers' home at Higinville, Missouri.
