
This cumulative Index to the Theodore Roosevelt Association Journal, covering the first 25 years of this periodical, 1975-2000, is published thanks to the Theodore Roosevelt Inaugural National Historic Site (Wilcox Mansion) in Buffalo, New York. The Index was compiled by Shirley P. Hudders, Margaret Paul, and Molly Quackenbush. Shirley Hudders and Margaret Paul are dedicated volunteer workers at the Buffalo historic site, and Molly Quackenbush is the site superintendent of the Wilcox house, where Theodore Roosevelt took the oath of office as the 26th President of the United States on September 14, 1901. It is particularly fitting that this Index is published during the centennial year of Theodore Roosevelt's inauguration.

The Theodore Roosevelt Association Journal began publication in 1975. Two issues were published in 1975, two in 1976, and three in 1977, and starting in 1978 there have been four issues or numbers in each volume. Volumes often are published over more than one calendar year. The historian William H. Harbaugh once wrote that the TRA Journal does “a superb job of melding scholarship and human interest materials.” The Journal is both an historical periodical, with scholarly articles, documents, and book reviews, and the Theodore Roosevelt Association's newsletter. This mix of scholarship and news seems to have a wide appeal. Bound copies of the Journal are found on the shelves of many college and university libraries, and many local public libraries are subscribers. The Journal is received free of charge by every member of the Theodore Roosevelt Association. Today the Journal has a world-wide circulation of 2,500.

In the early 1990s, for over 18 months, a committee of hard-working volunteers at the Theodore Roosevelt Inaugural National Historic Site, under the leadership of Barbara B. Brandt, then supervisor of the Buffalo site, and Shirley P. Hudders and Margaret Paul, who co-chaired the committee, compiled a cumulative Index of the Journal for the years 1975-1992. This Index was published in Volume XIX, no. 3 (1993) of the TRA Journal, taking up an entire issue. Actually, there were - and are now - two indexes. The Buffalo group decided that it would be a good idea to compile a separate picture index in addition to the index alphabetical listing of articles, subjects, authors, etc. Shirley Hudders and Margaret Paul have now worked on the annual indexes of this publication since 1992, and decided that a cumulative Index was again in order, marking the 25th Anniversary of the Journal. The officers of the Theodore Roosevelt Association express deep gratitude to the Theodore Roosevelt Inaugural National Historic Site, and particularly Shirley Hudders, Margaret Paul, and Molly Quackenbush, for continuing work in the indexes of the Journal.
