MESSAGE.

To the Senate and House of Representatives:

I transmit herewith for the consideration of the Congress, the report of the Provisional Governor of Cuba for the period from December 1, 1907, to December 1, 1908.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

THE WHITE HOUSE, February 17, 1909.

III

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington, February 17, 1909.

MY DEAR MR. PRESIDENT:

I have the honor to submit herewith, with the suggestion that it be transmitted to Congress, the report of Hon. Charles E. Magoon, provisional governor of Cuba, for the period from December 1, 1907, to December 1, 1908. Governor Magoon will submit a supplemental report covering the period from December 1, 1908, to January 28, 1909, when the provisional government was terminated and the island again turned over to the Cubans, and the transmittal of this report has been delayed in the hope that the two reports could be submitted at the same time. While Governor Magoon is now engaged in preparing his supplemental report, it is not considered expedient to longer delay the submission of this report. The supplemental report will be submitted as soon as it is finished.

Very respectfully,

LUKE E. WRIGHT,
Secretary of War.

The PRESIDENT.
